San Sebastian a city like no other

In a Glimpse

Its 3 urban beaches, its bay, recognised as one of the prettiest in the world, along with its cultural and culinary heartbeat, make San Sebastian an unforgettable city, and the perfect setting to enjoy as you learn a language.

This coastal city surrounded by mountains offers a wide range of sporting pursuits, such as surfing at the famed La Zurriola beach, and hiking around the hillsides of Gipuzkoa.

Enjoy its landscapes, architecture and the vibrant city life while you learn Spanish in the most known school.

¿Want to know more?

Have a look of the official Tourism board, an entity of which we are members.

Gastronomy

San Sebastian has more Michelin stars per square meter than any other city in the world.

International hotspot

Located in one of the greenest areas of Spain you can easily access France.

City of festivals

Music and film international festivals. Blooming cultural program during all year.

Basque Culture

Enjoy our age-old culture and discover our own language: Basque

60 years helping our students take on the world.

Three generations and 60 years. That is our track record teaching languages and helping thousands of people to find their way in the world, to travel, discover other places, other cultures and other experiences.

Long enough for us to become the leading language school in the city, to earn the backing of the most prestigious international associations, and create a learning method to guarantee that your journey through the world of Spanish is a successful one, and a once-in-a-lifetime experience.

7 reasons to learn a language at Lacunza

➤ 1. Our experience

Our lengthy, proven experience means that we have taught more students Spanish over more years than any other school.

➤ 2. Lacunza Method

A highly active, interactive and social learning method.

➤ 3. Greater Option

We offer you more options than anyone else, whether in terms of facilities, course types, levels and experiences

➤ 4. Small group size

Learn in small groups, with an average of 7 students and a maximum of 12, giving you greater confidence and security

➤ 5. Our teachers

Expert teachers who offer continuous feedback, both in and out of class.

➤ 6. Always by your side

We are your family in Spain, and as such are always there by your side to help with anything you might need: accommodation, transfers, immersion, activities, exams, accreditation, study grants, etc.

➤ 7. Online follow up

Your learning begins today, but never ends, as we will remain in touch online.

Intensive 20

Learn Spanish in small groups with students of the same level.

The success of the course lies in the nature of the classes: everything is in Spanish from day one, irrespective of your level. This will allow you to improve your general level of Spanish, while learning useful vocabulary for your daily life in Spain.

The best way to learn quickly, meet people from all round the world, and have a great time with our extracurricular activities.

Flexibility

You choose how many weeks you want to study, and if you have at least level A1, you can start any Monday. Ask us about starting dates for beginners.

Level test

To ascertain your level of Spanish, you will take a written test before you come here, and an oral on the day you arrive, with one of our teachers.

Follow-up

You will be able to measure your progress throughout the course. Our director of studies is also available to offer advice throughout your stay.

Small Groups

The most sought-after courses from 1 week.

For those aged over 50 with a passion for culture and cuisine.

- May (Spanish and Gastronomy).
- September (International Film Festival).

Our senior course combines two types of class:

1. General Spanish in small groups with other students of the same level and of all ages.
2. Specific mini-group sessions for those aged over 50, with a focus on culture and cuisine, both in and out of class.

LEARN WITH PEOPLE YOUR AGE

Specific Spanish sessions with people of your age who you share an interest with, allowing you to decide the content of your course.

LEARN IN AND OUT OF CLASS

Culture is experienced first-hand, and so as well as classroom sessions, you will also put all you have learned into practice in real-life situations.

SAVOUR LOCAL CULTURE

Our region has so much to offer: try our wines, visit the Museum of Basque Culture, sample fresh produce at local markets or go hiking in the countryside, to give just a few examples.

Trimester

The best option to live like a San Sebastian local, giving you 12 weeks of an Intensive 20 course at an unbeatable price. We also offer you a very substantial discount on your accommodation in a shared flat, so that you can live and feel like a local.

Spring: 14/04-25/04
Summer: 02/06-29/08

A meaningful and complete Spanish summer full of experiences.

If you are aged between 14 and 17 and want to travel, make friends from different places around the world, and learn while you have fun, then we have the perfect course for you (or for your children).

Because we don't only teach grammar, verbs and vocab, but also share culture, and place our students in real everyday situations. We want them to gain in confidence and be able to develop their intercultural communication skills by debating their opinions with teenagers from other countries.

Enjoy a safe city.

The students have 2 afternoons of free time per week to hang out with their new friends and enjoy a safe city, with beaches and plenty more to experience.

Live the experience.

We have spent more than 20 years refining our programme year after year, allowing us to strike the perfect balance between learning and fun.
